

ACTING

McEachern High School
Instructor Megan Dickens-Lloyd

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course introduces the Acting process and the role of the actor in various styles/methods with focus on scene study. This course will help students develop and apply introductory to Intermediate performance skills including stage movement, vocal strategies, character development, directing, production, and theatre etiquette.

GRADE BREAKDOWN

Performance Evaluation	40%	Participation, Etiquette, Writing Assignments, Individual and group projects, and rehearsals
Tests	20%	Formative Assessment Open-Notes
Daily Grades	25%	Daily Assessments and Activities, Journals
Midterm	5%	Cumulative
Final	10%	Cumulative

MATERIALS

- Folder or Binder to house and organize all handouts
- Pens, Pencils, Highlighters, Colored Pencils
- 2 Composition Notebooks

Class Expectations

1. Attendance is very important. Students may be removed from a scene or group performance and an alternate assignment will be given in place.
2. Please Arrive to class prepared and ready to learn. Participation is not just encouraged-it's expected
3. All will be accepted and respected or result in disciplinary action
4. No Gum, Food, Drinks are allowed in the Classroom
5. Cellphones should remain in a bookbag on silent unless permitted by the teacher.
6. Students will remain in seats until dismissed by the teacher.
7. No Inappropriate or offensive behavior or material will be permitted and will result in a "0" Daily or Performance Grade.
8. Put your best foot forward
9. Be Kind
10. Have Fun!